

Deepwoods Ventures is located in Northern Minnesota, so far back in the woods that people say; "You have to pump in daylight".

It is our mission to offer tools that will make your woodcarving experience an enjoyable one.

An old whittler once said, "Carving knives and tools are to woodcarvers as jewelry is to a woman - you can never have enough."

Going along with that idea, we started making carving knives that are both functional and nice to look at. We hand forge your carving tools with the ol' hammer and anvil using 1095 steel. We then take them through a multistep process that includes filing, quenching, triple tempering and then on to sanding and polishing to a satin finish. All handles are shaped for a comfortable fit. We then give them a hand rubbed oil finish for long lasting beauty.

It is our hope that your purchase from Deepwoods Ventures makes woodcarving even more pleasurable.

Testimonials From Our Customers

"I just received my first order from you. The knives are very nice, good steel, the blades are ground and sharpened well, comfortable and beautiful. Thank you." — M. McMinn, Texas

"There's nothing better than working with a good tool. Your blades are designed very well and yes, they are great to look at. Some one today said they were like a piece of art. Thanks." — G. Thompson

The String Beaner

This knife is a small detail knife, it really gets in the small spots. The handle is smaller than our other knives - 7/8" at its widest point. This gives you the option of a pencil grip for great control. We call it a string beaner because it is long and skinny like a string bean. Throughout production testing we would always say "give me the string beaner", the name just stuck.

Description: The String Beaner-Standard Handle
Order Number: #204S-Upswept or #204S-Straight
Available Cutting Edge Length: 3/4" or 1"

Detail Carver

Just like the name suggests, a carving knife for all your detail work. Smaller bladed knife for those hard to get to details and small incising. We have had a lot of people say they use this knife for chip carving, even though that was not its original purpose. The "Detail Carver" is our carving knife choice for the beginning wood carver. Available in the figured handle, standard handle, or 4 choices of colored handles. Also, for those that want to customize their own handle, just the knife blank. All come to you sharp and ready to use.
